Remedial Action and Redevelopment Municipal Grant Program
Frequently-Asked Questions (FAQs)

April 11, 2016

The following summarizes the questions received regarding Round 9 of the Remedial Action and Redevelopment Municipal Grant Program.

- 1. For a municipally owned property, is the Town eligible to apply for a remediation grant if a municipal action (historic landfill activity several decades ago on a portion of the site) was the source of the contamination? The site would be used in conjunction with neighboring privately-owned property for a Town Center redevelopment.

Answer: CGS 32-764(c) prohibits Responsible Parties from receiving state funding to remediate sites for which they are responsible.

- 2. Can a town apply for both assessment and remediation funds under this round?

Answer: Yes, municipalities may submit one application for assessment and one for remediation.
