

THERE'S GOLD IN THEM THERE BROWNFIELDS

CRE-UCONN 2010 Teleconference Series

Thursday, May 20, 2010
12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Moderators: John Clapp, UConn
Lauren Vinokur, Robinson & Cole LLP

Featuring: Peter Simmons, Executive Director, Office of Responsible Development and Office of Brownfield Remediation and Development, Connecticut Department of Economic and Community Development

Brian Dillon, Program Manager, Office of Brownfield Remediation and Development, Connecticut Department of Economic and Community Development

The presenters will provide an overview of the Connecticut Department of Economic and Community Development, with particular emphasis on the Office of Brownfield Remediation and Development ("OBRD") and the Office of Responsible Development ("ORD"). The presentation will review how OBRD and ORD work with municipalities and private entities to coordinate financing and permitting and to provide various technical services in support of the redevelopment and reuse of brownfields. The presenters will highlight some of OBRD's success stories and wrap-up with a discussion of pending brownfield legislation.

Tuition & Registration: FREE - See attached registration form. The presentation will be given via webinar. Supporting materials and call-in information will be distributed by email and web access.

Peter S. Simmons is a Connecticut native and alumni of the University of Connecticut School of Engineering. He is a licensed professional engineer with the State of Connecticut with 20 plus years of state service. He is currently the Director at the Department of Economic and Community Development's Office of Responsible Development and the Office of Brownfield Remediation and Development. He is a certified economic development finance professional by the National Development Council. A former U.S. Navy Civil Engineer Corps Officer (Reserve). Veteran of the Iraq War. Recipient of the 2001 Connecticut Governor's Service Award for his work on the Pfizer Global Development facility team and 2006 Commissioner's Award for Service.

Brian Dillon is a Connecticut native and alumni of the University of Hartford School of Engineering. He is currently the Program Manager at the Department of Economic and Community Development's Office of Brownfield Remediation and Development with 10 plus years of state service. Recipient of the 2001 Connecticut Governor's Service Award for his work on the Pfizer Global Development facility team and 2005 Commissioner's Award for Service.

The Center for Real Estate and Urban Economic Studies is dedicated to cutting edge research and the training of skilled individuals for all segments of the industry. We provide numerous services to Connecticut's real estate professionals and to the Department of Consumer Protection. Our activities embrace many disciplines including finance, statistics, economics and geography. Our teaching and research has long been ranked among the very best programs in the US and Internationally.

The Counselors of Real Estate is a membership organization established exclusively for real estate advisors who provide intelligent, unbiased, and trusted advice to clients or employers. Membership in the organization is highly selective and is awarded by invitation only through peer, employer and client review. Founded in 1953, the organization serves 1,100 members worldwide. Holders of the "CRE" certification are linked to one another by their commitment to integrity, competence, community, trust, and service. They adhere to a strict Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Practice. The organization serves as an information resource and provides its members with opportunities for professional development, knowledge sharing, and networking, all grounded in a culture of camaraderie.

CM credit for this program is pending.

THERE'S GOLD IN THEM THERE BROWNFIELDS

May 20, 2010 WEBINAR

REGISTRATION FORM

To Register: Mail, fax or email this form to: Robinson and Cole, Attention Margaret Doyle, 280 Trumbull Street, Hartford, Connecticut 06103-3597; Fax: (860) 275-8299; mduoye@rc.com.

Please PRINT:

NAME: _____

PHONE: _____

EMAIL: _____

FIRM/ORGANIZATION: _____

Please indicate whether you will be seeking CM credits: Y / N

About the CRE-UCONN Teleconference Series: The Connecticut Chapter of the Counselors of Real Estate (CRE) and the UConn Center for Real Estate and Urban Economic Studies have collaborated to develop and sponsor a monthly teleconference series focused on current real estate issues and trends. This series will consist of one hour long teleconference programs held on the third Thursday of each month.

If you have questions regarding the 2010 CRE-UCONN teleconference series, please contact George Watson (gwatson@rc.com), Lauren Vinokur (lvinokur@rc.com), or Michele Maresca (mmaresca@rc.com)